FESTIVE SCENES AT ELKS' AUDITORIUM

Closing Feature of Visit to Alexandria of Press Association.

MARSHALL IS ON HAND

Grand Banquet—Speech of Vice-President—Mayor Fisher's Welcome—Company Adojurns.

The closing session of the Virginia Press Association was staged last night at the Elks' Auditorium, where the visiting editors and their families were the guests of the local committees. It was one of the most pleasant affairs of the kind ever given in Alexandria. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms and flowers and the tables set with great vases of crimson roses and candelabra, with pink shades, made a most inviting scene. The guests were received in the Elks lodge room, where a reception was tendered Vice-President Marshall on his arrival.

The Vice-President came to Alexandria in the private car "Mt. Vernon." A committee, consisting of Mayor Thomas A. Fisher, President F. F. Marbury of the Board of Aldermen; Robert S. Barrett, Alexander J. Wedderburn, of Alexandria; W. McDonald Lee, of Irvington, and W. S. Copeland, of Newport News went to Washington to escort the Vice-President to this city. In Washington they were met by H. C. Stiles, Ross E. Andrews, Robert N. Harper and Joseph Strausburger, of the Washington Committee, who came to Alexandria with the Vice-President.

The inviting menu, prepared by the Hotel Raitenel, was as follows:

Spanish Olives Salted Almonds
Radishes Crab Flake Cocktail
Clam Chowder a la Rammel Wafers
Spring Chicken a la Maryland
New Asparagus June Peas
Potatoes, Chateau
Chilled Tomato and Lettuce
Mayonnaise
Virginia Ham with Jelly
Diplomatic Rolls
Neapolitan Ice Cream Fancy Cake
Roquefort Dent's
Demitasse
Dry Martini
Haut-Sauterne
Hofbrau
Belfast Ginger Ale
Principe and Fatima

President Charles B. Cooke, presiding, made a brief address, in which he thanked the people of Alexandria for their many courtesies. When the Vice-President was introduced he was greeted with applause that lasted for more than three minutes. The Vice-President spoke for more than half an hour. It was a masterly effort and while for the most part in a serious vein, it was interspersed with the delightful touches of humor that have justly given Mr. Marshall the title of being "the best after-dinner speaker in America."

The Vice-President during his remarks declared that neither free press, free speech, nor public opinion exists in America today.

There is no free speech, Mr. Marshall explained, in that one can say what he pleases without paying the price which is sometimes collected in unfair coinage and in that no man is accorded the right to change his opinion without being reviled. There has been no free press since the passing of the 5-cent newspaper, he said. Public opinion, he declared, has become public prejudice.

The Vice-President also told the members of the press association that their calling, like his own, the law, has ceased to be a profession and has become a trade. He divided Americans into three classes: Hero worshipers, who follow the leader right or wrong; men who are both hero worshipers and iconoclasts, "carrying an incense pot and a brickbat," which they use in succession; and indifferent persons, who seem to take no interest in the questions of the day.

Finally Mr. Marshall came out strongly for a partisan press.

"I don't expect bull moose or Republican newspapers to say nice things about me," he said. "If they did I would be disappointed. I believe strongly in a partisan press, and if there is any lying to be done I hope it will be Democratic lying in Virginia."

In discussing the present tendencies in newspapers, Mr. Marshall deplored the publication of details of crime and said that he believed fully half the serious and dangerous crime of the country is suggestive, inspired by reading the detailed accounts of crimes published in the newspapers.

He also deplored what he termed the unmalicious misrepresentation of speeches. This he ascribed to the fact that the reporter is looking for headlines while the speaker is seeking to avoid them. He said, however, that the necessity for condensation and the publication of what the public demands, makes failure to report the serious phases of a speech inevitable.

"Reforms in the policies of newspapers must come from the outside, not from the inside," said Mr. Marshall. "It is not the man who writes, but the man man who reads the newspapers who is responsible for present conditons if they are not what they should be in the republic.'

Following the Vice-President, Mayor Fisher again welcomed the members of the association and told of the pleasure that the people of Alexandria had received in entertaining them. George O. Greene, of Clifton Forge, the newly elected president, was the next speaker and the last speaker of the evenng was Major Hunter who charmed the audience with his witty remarks.

The banquet was concluded shortly after 11 o'clock.

"Resolved: That the Virginia Press Association, realizing the importance to the state of the ship building industry located in the city of Newport News, respectfully petition the Hunorable Secretary of the Navy, the Senators and members of the House of Representatives from Virginia to use their best efforts to have the proposed supply ship and transport for the United States Navy built in Newport News, with the understanding that the company at Newport News has entered a bid for the construction of these ships at a lower price than they can be built elsewhere.

Resolved: That the Virginia Press Association, representing newspapers of various political faiths and religious beliefs, favor a continuance of its policy of the past of refusing to take any issue on any question of political or sectarian nature, on which its members or the people of the state may be divided.

We recommend that the constitution be amended to read as follows.

ARTICLE III.
Membership.

Any white editors, proprietors, or business manager of a newspaper or periodical in Virginia, regularly published at stated times and printed wholly or in part at the place of publication as often as once a month, or a reporter in a city paper so published, shall be entitled to membership on signing the Constitution, and on payment of such fees and dues as may be prescribed from time to time, provided such editor, business manager, proprietor, or reporter, is regularly and actively engaged in the newspaper business, and is endorsed by the proprietor of the newspaper upon which he is so employed, stating specifically the position filled by the applicant. And provided further that such person is duly elected at any annual meeting of the association by a majority of those present.

ARTICLE VI.
Government.

The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, five Vice-Presidents, a Secretary-Treasurer, a Historian, a Chaplain, and an Executive Committee, who shall be elected at the annual meeting of the Association.

Yesterdays session was opened with prayer by the Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church.

Miss Bertha Gray Robinson, editor of the Orange Observer, historian of the association, read a report on statistics of the organizations during the last year, followed by a paper which she read entitled "Some Suggestions for the Sanctum," as follows:

G. P. Coleman, State Highway Commission, Richmond, made a short address on the general road movement of the State, and particularly by reference to the new legislation which is required for economical road building. He also advocated the abolishment of the antiquated system of road building.

W. S. Copeland, editor of the Daily Press and Times-Herald, Newport News, offered a resolution that the Secretary of the Navy be requested to have certain vessels built at Newport News. His speech on the subject was a splendid effort.

A handsome memorial wreath this afternoon was placed on Washington's tomb at Mount Vernon by the members of the association. The members of the association, headed by H. H. Dodge, superintendent, marched in a body to the tomb with the wreath. Afterward they inspected the grounds and buildings.

Members of the association left here at 12:30 o'clock on a special train, being guests of the Washington-Virginia Railway Company, and at Mount Vernon were guests of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association. A chicken dinner was served the 100 visitors upon arrival at the cafe of T. F. Ellis. A souvenir plaque of Mount Vernon was tendered the women in the party by Mr. Ellis.

On returning this afternoon they visited the Masonic Temple, where are stored the priceless relics of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, of which Washington was the first master. A lecture regarding the relics was delivered by George W. Zachary, tiler of the lodge. At Christ Protestant Episcopal Church, Rev. W. J. Morton, rector, delivered a lecture on the church. The visitors also inspected the Carlye House where Alfred Thompson delivered a lecture on the history of the house.

Delegates and ladies left Alexandria this morning at 9:10 o'clock by the Washington and Virginia Electric Railway to Washington, where they were met in automobiles by reresentatives of the Washington Chamber of Commerce and the Washington Retail Merchants' Association and taken for a sightseeing tour of the city. Luncheon was served at 1 o'clock at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, welfth and F streets northwest. At 12:15 the party was received at the White House by President Wilson.

PEACE STILL IN FAR DISTANCE

Mediators at Niagara Falls Said to Have Merely Shifted Burden.

GET-TOGETHER TALK

Carranzista Delegates Will Maintain that Mexican Internal Affairs Are Not Subjects of Mediation.

Niagara Falls, Ontario, June 25.—Peace in Mexico is still far from assured. Hailed at first as the successful outcome of mediation, it was apparent today, fro mthe feeling of the group of men here trying to solve the Mexican problem, that the A. B. C. mediators have merely shifted their burden.

Agreement so far reached provides for a "get together" session of Huertistas and Carranzitas for settlement of Mexico's internal problems.

Notwithstanding persistent reports that Carranzista delegates were en route here, the feeling today that the constitutionalist first chef probably would stick to his oft-repeated declaration that Mexico's internal affairs were not a subject for mediation of any kind, and that he would refuse peace negotiations now that Villa's army has moved one step nearer Mexico City, in the capture of Zacatecas.

It was apparent today that the mediators themselves have absolutely no assurance that Carranza is likely to send delegates here for conference with the Huerta representatives. If the first chief does not it was the general view that the mediators would never resume their conferences; that the Mexican problem would be held unsolved.

Pending some word from Carranza, mediation proceedings will halt. Ambassador Naon will leave today and Ambassadors Suarez and Da Gama will merely be on hand in case the conferences of Huerta and Carranza delegates can be arranged.

"HOBO BILLY" IN TOWN

Millionaire Nomad Will Lecture at King and Washington Streets Tonight.

Billy O'Briant, alias "Hobo Billy," known all over the United States as the millionaire hobo, invaded Alexandria this morning on time freight No. 72, over the Southern, unbeknown to the train crew. With him came his ever present suit case and a big bundle of newspaper clippings, which make for a complete history of his wanderings.

This notorious hobo will entertain Alexandrians this evening at 7:45 o'clock at the corner of King and Washington streets, when he will lecture on "Sixteen Kinds of Hoboes."

"Hobo Billy" has a a unique record. He has been arrested 115 times for beating the trains, etc. While traveling his appearance typifies the genuine hobo, but he carries good clothes in his suit case. Billy does not know what walking is between two towns, for he always beats his way.

After hoboing for twelve years, Billy is now going to settle down to enjoy a legacy of $25,000 left him by his mother He will not share this fortune alone, for on August 2 he will be married to a young lady at Parkersburg, W. DRY GOODS HOUSE IN BANKRUPTCY

Claflin in New York, One of Largest in the World, Closes.

$25,000,000 IS INVOLVED

Number of Banks Hold Paper of Concern and 2,000 Financial Institutions Handle Its Business.

New York, June 25.—Receivers were appointed today for the H. B. Claflin Company, one of the biggest dry goods firms in the world.

The appointment of receivers followed filing of an equity petition before United States Judge Hands. It is said fully $25,000,000 is involved.

Judge Hand named Joseph B. Martindale and F. A. Juilliare to act, putting both under bonds of $500,000.

It is asserted, apparently with good reason, that the retail subsidiaries of the Claflin Company will be taken care of. The Associated Merchants, the United Dry Goods Company, and their controlled companies are said not to be directly involved.

It is stated that twenty-five or thirty big New York banks hold paper of the H. B. Claflin Company, and that probably 2,000 banks in different parts of the company. A meeting of the merchandise creditors of the big concern was arranged for today by the Merchants' Protective Association.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed before Judge Hand in addition to the proceedings in

THOUSANDS LAID OFF

President of Locomotive Works Tells of Present Conditions.

Philadelphia, June 25.—Alba B. Johnson, president of a locomotive works in Philadelphia, employing 19,500 men when running full-handed, told the United States Commission on Industrial Relations here yesterday that the force of employes has been reduced from a maximum of 19,500 men employed within the last 18 months to 8,200 at present. He added that the hours of employment of the day men have been cut from the normal time of 55 hours a week to 40, and the night shift from 65 hours to 30 a week.

Asked by Commissioner Harris Weinstock, of California, what, in his opinion, was the cause that compelled the reduction in men and hours, Mr. Johnson said:

"Railroad equipment and supply companies, car builders and such are sharing in the depression which is due to the delay of the Interstate Commission in deciding the freight rate question."

Taking up unionism the witness said he did not believe it wise to recognize or deal with union labor. Union men are employed in the works and kept at work so long as they are efficient, he said. "We believe organized labor levels downward," he added, "that it deprives the earnest, ambitious boy of a chance to rise; destroys ambition and initiative. We believe that it is impossible in a union shop to reach the efficiency that is possible under nonunion labor."

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time. A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

INTERESTING EXHIBIT

Car Called "Seeing Mexico" Now in Alexandria.

Mexico, a country which has attracted the attention of the entire civilized world wih its war, is a place many Alexandria citizens would like to see; that is, of course, from a standpoint of the sightseer but—it is too dangerous down there, and, anyway, the people of the city can see the country faithfully reproduced by visiting the exposition car now on Southern track at Duke street, near Fayette. Be it known that "Seeing Mexico" is in town and the special car is in reality a national fair from Mexico, the car being painted in the Mexican colors—red, white and green.

The car was loaded in Mexico City during the Madero regime by the Mexican National Education Society, having also the support of the Mexican government in that many valuable relics were allowed to be taken from the national museum and placed for exhibit on the car. The Mexican National Railway also supplied many valuable exhibits, among them the glass plate photographs.

Three colored boys, charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

SUCCESSION OF STORMS

High Wind, Rain, Thunder and Lightning Prevailed Last Night.

There have been four thunder storms in Alexandria and vicinity during as many days. Three have ventured themselves in the night and one toward the close of Tuesday.

Although the stars were shining brightly until about eleven o'clock last night the heavens were kept aglow by lightning. No thunder however, was heard until towards midnight, when the stars had ceased to glimmer. The thunder grew louder until between twelve and one o'clock, when the wind veered to the northwest and blew with considerable force. Rain soon followed and there was a copious downpour.

The lightning was continuous while the storm was raging. The disturbance was short-lived, however, and after the wind subsided conditions were as uncomfortable as ever. The temperature today has continued high.

The storm of Tuesday night extended as far down as Chesapeake Bay.

Steamers report a most exciting time about Cape Henry at 10:30 o'clock on that night. A storm of wind, rain and lightning accompanied by terrific thunder prevailed for some time, making it a trying time.

Captain Brodhead, of the steamer American which reached Baltimore yesterday from Rio Janeiro, said he thought his vessel would certainly prove a mark for the lightning. One bolt blinded every one on deck and when all was over and the storm had been run through it was found that the flagstaff on the stern had been split in three pieces from truck to rail with as much uniformity as if it had been sawed.

ONE OFFENDER IS FINED.

Colored Youth Arraigned in the Police Court for Breaking Bottle in Street.

A few days ago attention was called to the practice on the part of some persons of casting broken bottles in public streets, which are menaces to automobiles, autocycles and bicycles. The procedure, however, is still continued and tires are often virtually ruined by modern vehicles running into glass.

Yesterday Officer Kern arrested a colored youth named William Johnson after the latter had cast a broken bottle into the street. The negro was arraigned before the Police Court this morning. He plead ignorance of the law. Justice Caton imposed a fine of $5.

YOU'LL CROW OVER
'GETS-IT" FOR CORNS. !

It Will Startle You How "GETS-IT" Gets Corns Every Time.

"One, two, three!" That's about as long as it takes you to apply "GETS-IT" the new-plan, simplest, surest corn cure the world has ever seen.

"This Is No Place For a Crow. Her Corns Are All Gone. She Must Have Used 'GETS-IT.'"

Corn fussing is all over. Corns, corn pains and calluses are absolutely done for, from the minute you apply "GETS-IT". Forget the bother of useless plasters, greasy salves that spread and make toes sore and raw, little doughnut cotton rings that press on corns, forget knives, razors, scissors, and the dangers of blood poison from drawing blood and the contractions and harness that simply make corns worse. "GETS-IT" never hurts the flesh, never fails.

"GETS-IT" is sold by all druggists, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

MADE FALSE CLAIM.

Captain Fred L. Holden, of Highland Springs, Dismissed From Militia.

Richmond, June 25.—For false representations as to his previous service in the regular army and falsification of the records of his command, Company H, Fourth Infantry, Virginia Volunteers, stationed at Highland Springs, the examining board which inquired into his case recommended that Captain Fred L. Holden be discharged from the service, and Governor Stuart has approved the recommendation.

Quartermaster James Lefew, of the same company, who was tried by a military court, the same which heard the case against the sixteen members of the Richmond Light Infantry Blues' Band, was convicted of being guilty of disobedience of orders on March 28 and his punishment fixed at a dishonorable discharge from the service and to pay a fine of $20. Governor Stuart sustained this verdict, but reduced the fine to $15.

The same court tried Second Lieutenant John B. Larkin, of Company L, First Infantry, of Fredericksburg, on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer, in that he was disgracefully drunk during a parade on Washington's Birthday in Alexandria, and found him guilty. His punishment was fixed at one hour in the jail at Fredericksburg, to pay a fine of $50 and be dismissed from the service. The court recommended to the Governor that in view of Lieutenant Larkin's past good record and extenuating circumstances that the jail term and dismissal from the service portion of the verdict be dismissed. The Governor approved of this, and his action limits the officer's punishment for his offense to the fine of $50.

MAN HELD FOR GIRL'S DEATH

Young Woman of Hagerstown Dies in Harpers Ferry.

Charlestown, W. Va., June 25.—Miss Alma Mumma, Hogerstown, Md., died last night at the home of Harry Rockenbaugh, in Harpers Ferry, under suspicious circumstances.

She arrived from Hagerstown about two weeks ago and went to Mr. Rockenbaugh's. A few days ago C. L. Hoffman, an employe of the Western Maryland Railway Company, joined her there, at which time the young woman was reported to be ill.

Early yesterday morning Hoffman engaged the services of an undertaker and left Harpers Ferry, when he came to Charlestown, where he was arrested and taken to Harpers Ferry for a hearing.

Miss Mumma was 18 years old and Hoffman is 23. Prosecuting Attorney George D. Moore ordered an inquest and notified a brother of the young woman at Hagerstown.

REFUSED NEW SUIT

Trouble with People Is They Are Too Proud, Says Negro.

Harrisburg, Pa., June 25.—Pascal Hall colored, who was hanged here yesterday for a murder committed in a brawl at Steelton, Pa., a year ago, refused to wear a new black suit provided for his execution.

He said that he would go to his death in his old suit, as the trouble with people nowadays is that "they are too proud."

Hall refused to sing any hymns with the minister who attended him last night or today, but last night startled the prison by singing "Casey Jones."

The execution was witnessed by a jury of 12 colored men. The minister and physicians in attendance were also negroes.

CLOSING SCENES OF ENTERTAINMENT.

The members of the Virginia Press Association are being entertained today by the Washington Board of Trade and Retail Merchants. Before leaving the capital city they will be given a sight-seeing tour .

The last feature in connection with the entertainment of the association in Alexandria was the banquet last night in the Elks' Auditorium. It is generally admitted that this was one of the most pleasant affairs ever given in this city.

Both hosts and guests have been greatly pleased during the three days the Virginia newspaper men have been in Alexandria, and they will part tonight with many expressions of good will. There has been no hitch in any part of the program prepared for the entertainment and the meeting of the association in this city has been a continual feast and flow of soul.

Napoleon the First said upon one occasion that four hostile journalists were more terrible than one hundred thousand muskets. Yet the members of the Virginia Press Association are among the meekest and most placable people we have ever met and were the First Consul alive and permitted to mingle with these representatives of modern journalism he would doubtless revise his words.

We have often thought that garlands should at times be placed upon the tombs of defunct newspapers—especially those which played prominent parts in the history of their day. They failed, in most cases, through no fault of those who sacrificed labor and fortunes in vain attempts to keep them going. They were faithful chroniclers of the annals of the past and were as true to their missions as those of today. We have a scrap book in the Gazette office which, in the main, is filled with extracts from papers published shortly before the outbreak of the Civil War, but long since deceased. The Richmond papers of those days were culled for these selections. The history of the John Brown raid the subsequent hanging of the old fanatic, messages of Governor Letcher, President Buchanan, speeches of prominent politicians of those days, with much other memoranda incident to the outbreak of the Civil War prove interesting reading to the student of history.

It has been shown that it took sixteen hundred years to write the Bible. The authors of the books comprising the New Testament never saw those who wrote those in the Old. Yet generation followed generation, each man in his day taking up the skein of truth where his predecessor had dropped it.

This is suggestive of the work of the newspaper man. Many journalists of today never saw their predecessor. They, too, have taken up the work dropped by others.

The history of Virginia journalism is an interesting study. While with but two or three exceptions papers started in this commonwealth in colonial days and shortly after the Revolutionary War, have died, the papers of today are but continuing their story. They form part of the newspaper work of the State prior to and since the Revolutionary War.

The Alexandria Gazette is one of the few papers in the country which has survived the storms of years. It was the official paper of Alexandria in 1784 as shown by the records of the court.

Many Alexandria papers have been published at times during the many years the Gazette has shown the ebb and body of the times. They merely augmented the volume of local literature, but none was destined to take the place of the Gazette.

The journalistic field of Virginia has expanded enormously during the past half a century, and papers published in the Old Dominion stand in the front rank of those of their day and generation.

The Gazette voices the sentiment of the community in tendering an affectionate farewell to the visitors to our city. In the words of Mayor Fisher, there is no necessity of turning over the keys of the city to our friends when they come, as the latch string is always on the outside to welcome visitors like the members of the Virginia Press Association.

Post Toasties

For That Bedtime Snack

The kiddies need something that is dainty and appetizing, don't they? And you want to be sure that they have a food that is easily digested—one that will not disturb their sleep.

Post Toasties are surprisingly good at any time.

They are made of the hearts of the finest Indian corn, perfectly cooked, delicately sweetened and salted, rolled into thin, ribbony flakes and toasted to a crisp, golden brown.

They have that indescribable flavour—sweet and delicious, that so delights the taste.

Just pour from the package and add cream and sugar, or sprinkle over fresh berries or fruit.

Easy to serve and mighty good.

ROOSEVELT RETURNS.

Former President Attacks President Wilson's Administration.

New York, June 25.—Theodore Roosevelt, who returned to America upon the Imperator last night, vigorously defended George W. Perkins, chairman of the Progressive national executive committee, whose resignation as chairman was demanded recently by Amos Pinchot, who declared that Mr. Perkins' affiliation with certain big business interests made him unfit to hold his position.

The colonel also jumped on the administration's Colombian and Mexican policies with both feet, and resorted to language of the most vigorous nature.

"When they read Perkins out," said Colonel Roosevelt, "they will have to read me out, too."

The colonel reiterated that he would not be a candidate for the governorship of New York this fall.

AN AGITATOR KILLED.

Agent of Drivers' Union Shot in Chicago by a Contractor.

Chicago, June 25.—Patrick Dignan, contractor, yesterday shot and killed George H. Hammong, business agent of the Excavator and Teamsters' Union. Hammong is said to have threatened to call a strike of Dignan's teamsters if the contractor failed to reduce his wagon loads.

A number of persons witnessed the killing. Dignan was arrested.

BOLOGNA SAUSAGE KILLS.

Ptomaine Poisoning Results From Eating the Food.

Hagerstown, Md., June 25.—As a result of eating bologna sausage, Harvey Powers, a well-known resident of Clearspring, died at his home Tuesday night from ptomaine poisoning, aged 51 years. Powers bought a quantity of bologna sausage on Monday and ate some of it. An hour later he was taken violently ill. A physician was called, but despite his efforts Powers continued to grow worse until death followed.

Death of Delegate Toney.

Richmond, June 25.—D. L. Toney, member of the House of Delegates from Richmond, and one of the most prominent men in South Richmond, died suddenly Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock at his home, 1115 Hull street. He was attacked with acute indigestion yesterday morning at 4 o'clock, and in a few hours his condition became such that physicians were called in, but despite all efforts on their part he steadily sank and two hours before the end he became unconscious.

To Camp at Gordonsville.

Richmond, Va., June 25.—Because of Richmond's failure to install sewerage and proper sanitary equipment, at the site selected for the annual encampment of the Virginia National Guard, this city has lost the encampment.

Governor Stuart has ordered the State troops to encamp at Gordonsville, from July 21 to 30. The order includes all troops, except field artillery, which will encamp at Tobyhanna, Pa.

WOULD OUTLAW TIPPING

Senator Works' Bill Also Demands Adequate Pay.

Washington, June 25.—Tips to porters and waiters on trains and steamboats in Interstate Commerce would be prohibited by a bill introduced yesterday by Senator Works.

At the same time it would make it unlawful for an employer to pay such low wages that tips were necessary for the proper compensation of the employe.

REVENUE CUTTER SERVICE.

How It Came to Be Placed Under the Treasury Department.

The United States revenue cutter service is a military arm of the government attached to and under the direction of the treasury department. The service was organized in 1790 and constituted the original naval force of the country. There was at that time no navy department, and the service was placed under the treasury department, where it has remained ever since.

It is charged with the enforcement of the navigation and customs laws of the United States, the assistance of vessels in distress, the protection of the sealing industry in Alaska, the enforcement of the quarantine laws, the destruction of derelicts and other floating dangers to navigation and numerous other duties appropriate to its class of vessels. Each winter, by direction of the president, a number of the cutters patrol the coast for the special purpose of assisting vessels in distress.

The service co-operates with the navy when directed by the president and has so co-operated in every war in which the United States has been engaged. It is sometimes called the revenue marine service, but revenue cutter service is the proper name. There are forty-three cutters in the service, and they carry from one to five or six guns each.—Philadelphia Press.

HYGIENE IN THE DESERT.

Our Latter Day Methods Were an Open Book to Moses.

Nothing under the sun is new. Facts have proved that even the pitch which hygiene has reached at the present day was equaled and in many instances excelled under the laws of Moses.

The particular and careful manner in which animals are slaughtered according to the laws of the Talmud is acknowledged today to be the most sanitary method possible.

Professor Koch gave to the world the valuable results of his investigations in bacteriology, but several thousand years before that the Mosaic law pointed out the danger of humanity from tuberculosis in cattle, but did not forbid poultry as food. It was not many years ago that specialists discovered that fowl tuberculosis was harmless to man.

The yearly exodus to the country and seaside is no new innovation. Moses, the great lawgiver, prescribed not only feasting at certain seasons of the year, but the removal of whole families to great camping grounds in the open spaces, where they could live near to nature.—Pearson's Weekly.

A Chinaman on the Opium Habit.

In the American Magazine appears an article entitled "A Modern Opium Eater," written by a newspaper man, who became a victim of the habit and is now a convict in a penitentiary. In the course of the article the author quotes as follows what a Chinese den keeper said to him about the power of the habit to hold its victims:

"You no quit. Every man allee time say he quit. Every man allee same you. Smoke one time, smoke two time, smoke tlee time, then smoke allee time. Chineman, white man, chokuny (negro) allee same. No can quit. Bimeby you die you quit. Bimeby maybe you bloke—no more money, no more fiend bollow money, no can steelem money, maybe you quit one, two days. Bimeby maybe you go jail, no got fiend bling you hop, no got money giveu policeman catchem hop, you quit. You got money, no go jail, you no quit. I heap sabe. Bimeby you see."

The Pacific Mexican.

In the opening paragraph of one of his best stories Kipling wrote: "Let it be clearly understood that the Russian is a delightful person till he tucks his shirt in. As an oriental he is charming. It is only when he insists on being treated as the most easterly of western peoples that he becomes a radical anomaly, extremely difficult to handle. The host never knows which side of his nature is going to turn up next." There is a somewhat similar difficulty with the Mexican. He can be charming, but one never knows whether he is the most northern southerner or the most southern northerner, and he can change from one to the other with a facility that is almost genius.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Studied It Out.

One day two farm laborers were discussing the wiseness of the present generation. Said the first:

"We be wiser than our fathers was, and they were wiser than their fathers was."

The second one, after pondering a while and gazing at his companion, replied:

"Well, Garge, what a fule thy grandfather must 'a' been!"—London Express.

AN UNLUCKY BRIG.

Once Abandoned, the Marie Celeste Came to a Bad End.

There are few people who have not heard of the case of the American brig Marie Celeste, which in 1872 was inexplicably abandoned in calm weather off the Azores by a crew never after heard from. Few, however, know that it ended its career many years later at the hands of the barrator.

On its last voyage it cleared from Boston for Port au Prince, Haiti, ostensibly with a cargo of valuable general merchandise, insured for $30,000. When within a few miles of its destination it went ashore near Miragoane and became a total wreck. The captain, Parker, promptly sold the cargo, sight unseen, to American Consul Mitchell for $500. Mitchell saved it at some trouble, but lived to wish he hadn't.

When the underwriters' agent arrived on the scene to investigate, he found several funny things about the cargo. One case shipped as cutlery and insured for $1,000 contained dog collars worth $50. Barrels supposed to contain expensive liquors were full of worthless dregs, a consignment of salt fish insured for $5,000 was rotten, and other articles mentioned in the bill of lading proved to be in keeping.

Consul Mitchell, not only duped, but outlawed, stood not on the order of his going, but cleared out for tall timber. The captain of the brig was tried in the United States district court in Boston, convicted and sentenced to a long term in prison, where he died three months later.—David A. Wasson in Outing Magazine.

PRIDE OF THE UGLY CLUB.

He Was the Prize Member of an Old New York Organization.

In the New York Evening Post of May 11, 1814, appeared the following notice:

UGLY CLUB.

Ugly brothers, hither fly.
With you bring the varying eye—
Bring here cock eyes and eyes askance
That cannot pass one tender glance.
Bring gorgle eyes and piercers, too;
Eyes green, white, red, black and blue.
Bring with you the eagle's sight
To see your heart and keep it right.
But bring shortsighted eyes to spy
The mote that's in your brother's eye.

The members of the Ugly club are expected to attend a special meeting at Ugly hall, 4 Wall street, on Thursday evening, the 12th inst., at 7 o'clock, to take into consideration the propriety of bestowing some suitable mark of distinction on a member who lately while viewing himself in the secretary's ugly mirror was so much pleased with his own ugly phiz that he involuntarily let fall the glass, which was dashed to pieces, and exclaimed, "I shall yet be president of the club!" The astonishing fortitude of this ugly member, in the frequent and public acknowledgment of his natural deformities, deserves the highest commendation.

The members are requested to be punctual in their attendance, as the new members elected at the last meeting and six of the ugly beauties are expected to appear.

The propriety of admitting ladies into the club will be discussed.

By order of His Ugliness.

A Round Trip.

The attorney for a street railroad company in a Kentucky town was examining a skinny sixteen-year-old negro boy who had sued for injuries ostensibly incurred in a collision on the highway.

"You say," he asked, "that when this street car hit that wagon you were riding on the front seat of the wagon?"

"Dat's whut I said," answered the little darky.

"And you say the force of the blow knocked you up in the air?"

"Yas, suh—'way up in de air."

"Well, how long did you stay up there?" demanded the attorney.

"Not no longer dan it tuck me to git down!" answered the truthful complainant promptly.—Saturday Evening Post.

Rays From a Searchlight.

The paths traversed by rays from a searchlight depend on the form of curvature of the mirror. If flat, the paths of reflected rays would be the same as those of the rays received; if the arc of a circle, the rays will be reflected to one bright focus. To have a band of parallel rays leave the mirror it must be the arc of a parabola. Then straight rays will be reflected all parallel to each other. In air, the intensity of this beam of light would diminish, but in absolute vacuum would be as intense at any distance.—New York American.

That the mosquito is a carrier of malaria is supposed to be a recent discovery, but it was suggested in a medical work written in Ceylon 1,400 years ago.

TRAINED ELEPHANTS.

In India Tame Animals Aid In Capturing the Wild Ones.

In view of the vast strength possessed by full grown elephants, it seems at first sight almost incredible that they can be captured in herds and quickly subdued to the will of their masters.

At the present time, in Mysore, the regular method of capturing wild elephants is for a large number of natives to go into the jungle, some mounted on trained elephants and many on foot, and to make a great noise and hullabaloo, which results in driving herds of the wild elephants into stockades, or often into pools of water, which have previously been surrounded on all sides, except at the approaches, by immensely strong palisades. As soon as the herd is cornered the passages that had been left open are securely closed, and then the trained elephants are brought into play to cajole and subdue the perplexed prisoners.

In India elephants are no longer captured, as they still are in Africa, by means of huge pitfalls in the ground. In these traps they are often seriously injured or killed. The Indian elephant is somewhat smaller than the African and differs from it in other ways—as, for instance, in the fact that tusks are possessed only by the males, while both sexes are provided with them in Africa. In general, also, the tusks of African elephants are nearly twice as large as those of their Indian relatives, a single pair sometimes weighing as much as 250 or 300 pounds.—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

WAGNER'S "PARSIFAL."

Its Cold Reception at First Moved Hans Sachs to Fury.

When Wagner's "Parsifal" was first performed in Bafreuth, the critic Hans Sachs was almost the only one of all the writing fraternity to welcome it as a great work of genius. To the ears of the others its rude realism sounded unmusical. They wanted melody like that Verdi was turning out in Italy, Bizet in Paris and a few minor composers in their own Berlin.

But Sachs was a man of broader mold. He heard the great music of "Parsifal" with unprejudiced ears and recognized the genius of the man. He shouted it abroad in his writings and became furious at a world that would not, perhaps could not, find pleasure in the dramatic voices of the orchestra, its vivid emotionalism and marvelous appeal to the aesthetical nature that is in every man and woman. He knew that the Germans were merely refusing to listen, save for melody, and finally he told them that even in the melodic field Wagner was the greatest of them all.

Sachs has written eloquently of Wagner's melody, beside which the melody of the Italians is pallid, anaemic, insignificant. Only now and then, he said, were the Italian melodists other than artificial. Wagner's melody was the spontaneous song of a musical heart. The "Good Friday Spell" was the most exquisite song of praise ever written by any man, no less a song because it was wordless, sung only by the violin and woodwinds.—Detroit Free Press.

The Trained Voice.

Lawyers, clergymen and doctors all fail to secure the influence with the people with whom they come in contact because of inability to express their thoughts in an impressive way. Had the voice been trained the same as the eye and the intellect, had the exterior qualities been trained to express like the voice the best and the clearest facts, they would all have been successes. The melodious voice of Henry Clay always charmed his audience everywhere. Wherever he went people flocked to hear him, while the heavy bass tones of Daniel Webster failed to attract and actually drove people away. They preferred to read what he had to say, but wanted personally to hear Clay's pleasing voice.—Medical Record.

Fuller's Great Memory.

Thomas Fuller, the author of "The Worthies of England," possessed the useful accomplishment for a clergyman of being able to repeat a sermon verbatim after hearing it only once. Fuller once succeeded in naming backward and forward and without a single omission every shop sign on both sides of the way from Temple Bar to the eastern extremity of Cheapside. This appears a remarkable feat when it is remembered that Fuller lived before the practice of numbering houses was adopted, so that every shop he passed bore a sign.—London Chronicle.

Savage Game In India.

In the province of Sind, India, there are more than 3,513,000 people, and yet there are occasional tigers, panthers, leopards, wolves and hyenas. The gad, or wild sheep, the ibex, the chinker, the black buck and the hog deer are comparatively common.

Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The very first dose surprises you. It glides down your throat and spreads a healing, soothing coating over the inflamed tickling surface. That's immediate relief. It loosens up the tightness in your chest, stops stuffy wheezy breathing, eases distressing, racking, tearing coughs, soothes the irritated, inflamed bronchial tubes and air passages. Children love it. It is mildly laxative—as a cough medicine should be, and does not upset or distress the most sensitive stomach. Refuse any substitute. Contains no opiates.

Offer to Pay For Samose if it Does Not Make Thin People Fat.

Pale, thin people are simply suffering from want of nourishment. They may eat enough, but their food is not properly digested and does them no good.

Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food should be used by all who are pale, weak and thin. It mingles with the food and aids assimilation so that when taken for a short time Nature will soon assert her normal powers, and the food that is eaten will give strength and good flesh.

The woman who longs for rosy cheeks and the plumpness of beauty should use Samose. The man who wants to be strong and well and gain health and good flesh, will find his desires accomplished by Samose.

Such remarkable results have followed the use of Samose that druggists, E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, are willing to pay for the treatment if it does not give the desired results. They make this offer generally and want all who are thin, weak out of of health to get a box of Samose from them on those terms.

Druggists, E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

WANT TOBACCO REPORT SOON

Virginia Growers Say They Are Losing Money Yearly.

Washington, June 25.—Representatives of the Virginia divisions of the Farmers' Educational and Co-Operative Union of America, were here today to urge the Federal Commission appointed to investigate the tobacco industry in this country to make an immediate report of its findings.

D. M. Blankenship, secretary and treasurer of the Virginia division, said that unless the commission completed its investigations and suggested some form of remedial legislation soon tobacco growers of Virginia would have to quit business. He declared the cost of production was so far above the selling price that it would be impossible for the farmers to continue much longer under the present conditions.

CONDITIONS IN BUTTE.

Policemen Play Cards While Rioting Progresses.

Butte, Mont., June 25.—Butte was quiet yesterday, after a night of rioting caused by internal strife in the local miners' union, which cost the life of one man, injuries to four others, and a heavy property loss.

Charles H. Moyer, president of the federation, and others who were driven from the miners' hall under fire, appealed to the Governor at Helena yesterday for State control at Butte.

Charles Henderson, a former sheriff, as chairman of a citizens' committee, went to the police station at 1 o'clock yesterday morning, and complained of the inactivity of the police. Henderson said he found seventeen police playing cards.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

Had Lung Trouble and Expected to Die

With the civilized world anxiously seeking a specific for Lung Trouble, the number of recoveries brought about through the use of Eckman's Alterative, a medicine for Throat and Lung Troubles, is attracting universal attention. For fifteen years Eckman's Alterative has been used and the reports of recoveries in many supposed hopeless cases indicate that this medicine is doing a vast amount of good. Read this:—

33 B St., Keyser, W. Va.

"Gentlemen: I was taken sick in November, 1908, with a very bad cold and dizzy spells. The doctor then pronounced my case as Malaria Fever. I grew steadily worse. I had two consultations held over me, and the verdict was that the fever had affected my lungs and that my case was hopeless; only gave me two months to live. My physician had tried most all kinds of treatment and none did me any good, so he asked my husband if he objected to him trying a proprietary medicine. So I began on your Alterative. I was in bed from November 30, 1908, until February 25, 1909, and was thought dying several times. Today I am healthier and stronger than ever."

(Signed) MRS. H. E. BRILEY.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
